The Bright Morning Star

1. I behold the bright Morning Star.
   I'll leave this world, heaven to go.
   Dark is the world; the night's far spent.
   Bright Morning Star, I long for You.

2. I can see the finish line.
   I'll run the course; steadfast I'll go.
   Short is the time; God's will be done.
   Forget the past; march on forward.

3. I see the church will be finished.
   With diligence I'll serve my Lord.
   Things of this world will pass away.
   My labour is never in vain.

4. I can see the Lord's coming soon.
   In Him I will trust and obey.
   Say no to sin, endure all trials.
   You will dry my tears when You come.

5. I can see the crowns and rewards.
I'll gladly bear shame for the Lord.
Take up my cross; follow the Lord.
I wait for His praises with joy.

6. I can see the coming glory.
I'll despise all trials and pain.
Light affliction's working for us
The eternal weight of glory.

7. I can see my heavenly home.
As a pilgrim I live on earth.
This world has no lasting city.
A fairer home's prepared for me.

Amazing Grace

5̣ | 1 – 3 1 | 3 – 2 | 1 – 6̣ | 5̣ –

A - maz - ing grace! How sweet the sound

5̣ | 1 – 3 1 | 3 – 2 | 5̂ –

That saved a wretch like me!

3 | 5 · 3 5 3 | 1 – 5̣ | 6̣ · 1 1 6̣ | 5̣ –

I once was lost, but now am found.

5̣ | 1 – 3 1 | 3 – 2 | 1̂ – ‖

Was blind, but now I see.

2. ‘Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

3. The Lord hath promised good to me,
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

4. Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come.
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

5. When I've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when I first begun.

I am Really Rich

1. I am really really rich!
   Almighty God is my Father.
   Jesus Christ has thousands names
   To satisfy my every need.
   Holy Spirit abides in me.
   He is my Helper forever.
   I have a warm, eternal home
   And the Bible dearer than gold.

2. See the sky and clouds so bright,
   Flowers and trees, mountains and seas.
   Birds and bugs give tunes so nice.
   The moon and stars light up the night.
   My Lord walks with me all the way,
   Giving me joy, faith, hope and love.
   I have glad tidings of glory
   For thousands souls in misery.

3. O Lord, make me give, give, give.
Make me a giver all my life.
More I have as more I give
Till overflowing in my heart.
Giving water to little ones,
Eternal reward will bring me.
“Better to give than to receive.”
Five loaves, two fish can feed many.

Gain Christ

1. I was lost in worldly pleasures,
   And indulged in mortal things;
   Strayed from "Fount' of Living Water,"
   Bound in sin, how mis'rable!
   Now, the glory of Christ draws me.
   My heart's melted in His great love.
   Forget things behind, reach forward;
   Press toward the goal ahead.

2. All things that are under the sun,
   Are vanity, toils in vain.
   Soon the world, its lusts will vanish.
   As the mist, none will remain.
   The Lord alone will never change.
   Only He satisfies my heart.
   Whom have I in heaven but Christ?
   I desire nothing on earth.

3. Whatever things were gain to me,
All I have counted as loss
For knowing Christ Jesus my Lord,
My greatest treasure of all.
For whom I have suffered the loss
Of all things, and count'd them as dross,
That I may gain Christ my Lord,
That I may gain Christ my Lord.

Christ is My Life

1. If then you were raised with Christ,
   Seek those things above,
   Where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

2. Set your mind on things above,
   Not on the things on earth;
   For you died, and your life's hidden with Christ in God.

3. When Christ, who is our life,
   Who is our life, appears,
   You will also appear with Him in glory.

(Ref. Col. 3:1-4)

What Manner of Love

1. Behold, behold what manner of love
   Abba has bestowed on us,
   That we should be called children of God!
   And we are children of God!

2. Therefore the world does not know us,
   Because it did not know Him.
   Therefore the world does not know us,
   Because it did not know Him.

3. Beloved, now we are children of God,
   What we shall be is not shown.
   But we know that when He is revealed,
   We shall be like Him, like Him.

4. For we shall see Him as He is,
   And everyone who has
   This hope in Him purifies himself
   Just as the Lord is pure.

All these pierced through Your heart.

2. My dear Lord, I think of Your wounded back.
It's like a land being plowed.
Your head was pierced by the crown of thorns,
But You were still steadfast.
You carried the bitter cross to the place called Golgotha.
Heaven and earth reject'd You; Abba forsook You.

3. When I behold my Lord and His cross
How can my heart not be moved?
His head and back were wounded, hands and feet were nailed;
His side was pierced, heart broken.
Up high was my Saviour; down dripped His precious blood.
It was shed for me, to wash away my sins.

4. Whenever I think of my Lord and His cross
My heart is melted and moved.
Such love, pain, righteousness, all weave into
Boundless forgiveness.
Love so deep, grace abundant, flowing to my heart,
Turning into a fountain, overflows forever.

5. Thinking of the tender love of the cross,
I fall in His ocean of love.
My stubborn and unyielding heart is melted.
My wounded spirit is healed.
The boundless love of the cross compels me always.
In His ocean of love I'll be enthralled fore'er.

2. Tell me, O You whom my soul loves,
Where do You pasture Your flock,
Where do You make it lie down at noon?
I want to follow You.
Most beautiful among women,
Go forth, if you do not know,
On the trail of the flock and feed your young goats
By the tents of the shepherds.

3. Like a lily among the thorns—
My darling among maidens.
Like an apple tree in the forest—
My beloved among young men.
With great delight I sat in His shade.
His fruit was sweet to my taste.
He has brought me to His banquet hall.
His banner o'er me is love.

4. My Beloved is like a young stag, gazelle;
He came leaping on the mountains.
He said to me, "My beautiful one,
Arise! Come along with Me.
Winter is past, the rain is gone,
Flowers appear on the earth.
The voice of the turtledove is heard.
Arise! Come along with Me."

5. Let Me see your face and hear your voice
In the secret place of the cliff.
Let Me see your face and hear your voice
In the clefts of the rock.
For your voice is sweet to Me,
And your face is lovely.
You're My treasure, I desire you forever.
Day and night I long for you.

6. O My darling, You're so beautiful.
There is no blemish in you.
You have made My heart beat faster
With a glance of your eyes.
How much better is your love than wine,
And the fragrance of your oils.
A strand of your necklace steals My heart.
How beautiful is your love.

A spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
You're a garden spring, well of fresh waters,
And streams from Lebanon.
Awake, north wind, and come, O south,
Blow upon my garden,
That the spices may blow out from my garden.
Come, my Beloved, eat its fruits.

8. My sister, My love, My perfect one,
May you open for Me,
For My head is covered with dew,
My locks the drops of the night.
Though you are weak, I know your hardship.

Quickly fly to My bosom. (I am the resurrection.)
